About the Central Illinois Animal Welfare Coalition

In 2006, animal welfare leaders joined forces to collectively address the needs of homeless companion animals in Champaign and Douglas Counties. Through cooperation and the pooling of resources, animal welfare agencies are working together to:

- Increase the availability of spay/neuter services,
- Increase the number of animals that are adopted into new homes, and
- Through education, decrease the number of animals that require services.

Akita Rescue of Champaign-Urbana
Pam Wasson, Canine Behavioral Consultant

Akita Rescue of Champaign-Urbana is a breed-specific rescue organization dedicated to finding new homes for abandoned or unwanted Akitas.

Pam Wasson is an experienced canine behavioral consultant.

The purpose of the Society is to prevent cruelty to animals, to promote animal welfare, and to educate the public about humane care and treatment of animals. CCHS is an "open door" shelter and accepts all animals needing shelter, regardless of age, physical condition or adoptability. As a local, not-for-profit charity, CCHS exists through the generosity of many individuals and businesses and are supported by a community that cares.
